The duties of an active churchman and leader of his people have always been combined with an intense devotion to his literary work. In 1888 he translated the Doctrine and Covenant into Swedish, revising this translation for a second edition in 1928. In 1890 Mr. Sjudahl joined the Deseret News editorial staff and was editor-in-chief from 1906 to 1914. In 1913 was issued his The Reign of Antichrist, and his Doctrine and Covenants, Commentary, was published at Liverpool in 1919, at the close of his missionary labors in that city. He assisted Dr. James E. Talmage, of the Council of the Apostles, in the preparation of the following standard works for publication: The Book of Mormon, 1920; The Doctrine and Covenants, 1923; The Pearl of Great Price, 1923; The Articles of Faith, 1924. In 1927 he translated The Pearl of Great Price into Swedish, and in the same year wrote Introduction to the Study of the Book of Mormon. He was connected with the Improvement Era from 1919 to 1928, and since February, 1921, with The Juvenile Instructor (now The Instructor). At the present time Mr. Sjudahl is editor-in-chief of the associated newspapers, Utah Posten, Der Salt Lake City Beobachter, Bikuben, and De Utah Nederlander. He is also engaged in the translation of The Book of Mormon into Swedish for the church.

Mr. Sjudahl is a member of the Bonneville Club, since September 24, 1927, has had membership in the National Geographic Society, is a member of the American Sons and Daughters of Sweden and the American Peace Society.

He married, August 27, 1879, Anna Maria Johnson, who was born at Trondhjem, Norway, in September, 1853, and died August 16, 1883. Both children by this union died young: Janne Dominicus Bartimej, born at Trondhjem September 11, 1881, died at Salt Lake City August 28, 1886; and Nanna Maria, born at Trondhjem in July, 1883, died there in September, 1884.

In the Manti Temple, May 30, 1888, Mr. Sjudahl married Minnie Christine Christoffersen. She was born at Manti November 27, 1870, and died at Salt Lake City November 10, 1910. By this marriage there were two daughters. Leilah Palestine, born at Manti May 20, 1889, is Mrs. Philip C. Reynolds and has two children, Vera Jeanne, born in Salt Lake City February 3, 1912; and Robert Gould, born at Salt Lake City June 15, 1895.
